This fabulous evening begins with a reception gala followed by a delicious four course gourmet meal designed specially by Chef Todd of The Roving Chef.

After dinner June and her band of talented musicians will carry you away by performing some of the most complicated and greatest Jazz tunes ever written. Her connection to each song is from her soul.

In addition to having a remarkably beautiful voice and repertoire, June's stage presence envelopes her audience and makes each person feel as if they are being sung to individually. Her shows are sheer magic!
