TANIS HARGRAVE, “THE ROVING CHEF” HAS ARRIVED AT WILLOW SPRINGS WINERY

Stouffville, Ontario (November 14th, 2005) - Willow Springs Winery is pleased to announce that locally renowned chef Tanis Hargrave – “The Roving Chef” will be orchestrating the menus and food services for all corporate and private group functions at the winery.

“Now in our fifth year of business, the winery along with our 11-acre vineyard is one of the most unique venues in York Region. We have become a popular venue for both the corporate and private group markets, as well as for wedding ceremonies and dinners,” stated Willow Springs’ owner Mario Testa. “Everyone enjoys visiting the winery for our winemakers’ dinners and wine tasting receptions and now with Tanis Hargrave we have the perfect Executive Chef who shares our vision for the winery.”

“The Roving Chef” also prepares and serves gourmet meals for busy people for all occasions and special events. In addition, Tanis conducts murder mystery dinners and demonstration cooking classes.

Willow Springs Winery is situated atop the Oak Ridges Moraine in Stouffville, Ontario. The winery produces only premium VQA Ontario wines.
